17.1 Definitions

17.1.1 Transfer – A transfer is defined as a lateral movement from one job classification as listed on the classified salary schedule to the same job classification in the same or any other office, site, department, including an increase in hours in the same position.

17.1.2 Promotion – A promotion is an upward movement in range.

17.1.3 Change of Job Classification – A change of job classification is movement from one job classification to another at the same range.

17.2 Application for Transfer/Promotion

A Bargaining Unit member may apply for a Transfer/Promotion by submitting a completed in-house application for any posted vacancy.

17.3 Posting Vacancies

17.3.1 When a vacancy occurs, the Human Resources Office will post the vacancy concurrently at all job sites within the district for (5) working days.

17.3.2 Posting Contents: The job vacancy notice shall include: the job title, a brief description of the position and duties, the minimum qualifications required for the positions, applicable special skills, the number of hours per day, number of days per week, and months/days per year assigned to the positions, the salary range, and the deadline for filing to fill the vacancy.

17.3.3 Notices of job vacancies within the Bargaining Unit shall be posted on bulletin boards in prominent locations at each District work site.

17.3.4 The District may simultaneously post vacancies both inside and outside.

17.4.5 All job vacancies shall be posted for (5) working days.

17.4 The District will paper screen and test all candidates that apply. Only the top qualifying candidates will be eligible for an interview. The Association may appoint a member to any interview panel.

17.5 Reference Checks: Reference checks will be conducted on the top candidates following the interview. Reference checks will include a review of current job performance and discipline.

17.6 Selection Criteria: Selection criteria will include the following:

1. Test Score - All bargaining unit members shall be grandfathered at a score of 100% within their current classification.
2. Interview Score

4. Where these 3 factors are equal, as determined by the district, Seniority will Prevail. (See Appendix "" for Interview Score Sheet)

17.7 Candidate Selection: If an outside candidate is selected over an inside candidate, upon written request from the inside candidate, a written justification shall be submitted to the Human Resources Office by the selecting Administrator with constructive feedback on strengths and weaknesses, or areas of improvement for the inside candidate.

17.8 Additional Vacancies: When additional vacancies of the same classification occur within three (3) months of the original posting, the District shall have the right to utilize applications received on the most recent posting as an applicant pool. Current bargaining unit members shall have an additional three (3) working days to apply for such vacancies.

17.9 Conditional Period: The conditional period for bargaining unit members receiving a promotion/transfer shall be ninety (90) days. Any bargaining unit member who does not successfully complete the conditional period shall have the right to return to his/her previous classification.

17.10 Involuntary Transfer: Involuntary transfers may be implemented by the District if necessary to meet the needs of the District. A bargaining unit member may be involuntarily transferred for legitimate personnel reasons, which the Superintendent or Designee believes could be alleviated by the involuntary transfer. Notification and reason for transfer must be submitted in writing to any unit member subject to involuntary transfer. An involuntary transfer of a unit member made during the year shall not result in the loss of compensation, seniority, or any fringe benefit for the remainder of the fiscal year.

In the event the District identifies a need to adjust staffing ratios at school sites due to changes in student populations or program changes, vacancies shall be filled in accordance with the following process.

17.10.1 The District shall provide reasonable notice to CSEA of proposal to transfer Bargaining Unit Member.

17.10.2 The District may post positions of the understaffed school sites for voluntary transfers after discussion with CSEA.

17.10.3 In the event all positions are not filled through voluntary transfers they may be filled by involuntarily transferring the junior employee in the affected classification at the school site to the vacant position.

17.10.4 A bargaining unit member that was involuntarily transferred other than for personnel reasons, shall have the first opportunity to return to their original school site, if a position within that classification became available.
